WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION TO CONDITION APPROVAL OF SPRINT NEXTEL CORPORATION

Sprint Nextel Corporation, by its attorneys, hereby withdraws its October 17, 2011, Petition to Condition Approval¹ of the above-captioned applications of New DBSD Satellite Services G.P., Debtor-In-Possession, and TerreStar License Inc., Debtor-in-Possession (the “Applicants”), seeking waivers from certain Commission rules as well as license modifications in connection with the ancillary terrestrial component authority held by the Applicants.² In the interest of definitively settling complex and long-standing disputes that have been pending in litigation in many federal courts and many proceedings before the Commission, Sprint and DISH have been negotiating on the issues related to Sprint’s relocation of certain incumbents from the 2000-2020 MHz band. DISH and Sprint have today reached an agreement to settle all of these disputes among Sprint, DISH, and their subsidiaries and affiliates in a mutually satisfactory
